Acknowledgments

The project co-ordinators, Shane Kilcommins and Máire Leane, would like to acknowledge the assistance of a number of people who contributed to the completion of this study.

In particular we wish to acknowledge the co-operation of the 303 victims who responded to the postal survey, the 20 victims who participated in the in-depth interviews, and the personnel in the victim support organisations who distributed the postal survey. Without the generous assistance of these people the study would not have been possible.

We would also like to acknowledge the 50 members of the public who participated in the street survey in Waterford and the 23 professionals and community organisation workers who participated in the community awareness telephone survey. The advice and co-operation received from Greg Heylin, Dominic Kelly, Grainne Bolger and Anne O'Shea from the Victims of Crime Office of the Department of Justice, Equality and Law Reform on behalf of the Commission for the Support of Victims of Crime was much appreciated. Finally we wish to acknowledge the work and commitment of Dr. Anna Kingston, the research officer who worked on the project, Dana Swanton the statistical consultant and Clodagh O'Driscoll who contributed to data inputting.
